

By Foot

Local shops are accessible within one minute to the south of Millbrook Park.

Most surrounding roads have good continuous footways, with multiple crossings on Bittacy Hill to access local transport interchanges.

The journey planner www.walkit.com can help identify walking routes between locations and also includes an option to use pleasant routes away from busy roads.

Walking is a great way to explore your local area and has many health benefits – you could burn 55 calories just walking the short distance from Millbrook Park to Mill Hill East Tube Station.

By Bike

Cycling is a great way to get around the local area. Millbrook Park is well located for cycling, with quiet surrounding roads, signed routes and nearby links to the London Cycle Network (LCN).

LCN routes surround the site, and offer a pleasant mix of on and off-road links to the local area and further afield.

Cycle stands are situated outside Mill Hill East Tube Station. Cycling is also a practical option for trips to Edgware (5.5km)

Car Share

Some journeys have to be made by car, but it is still possible to save money and help reduce your carbon footprint by sharing your trip with another car user.

Car sharing (also called liftsharing, ridesharing and carpooling) is when two or more people share a car and travel together. It allows individuals to benefit from the convenience of the car, whilst reducing running and parking costs. In addition, it can also alleviate the associated problems of congestion and pollution.

We are encouraging Millbrook Park residents to sign up to free car share matching sites:
